

TAM O'SHANTER GOLF COURSE & LEARNING CENTER

6700 W. HOWARD ST. – NILES, IL 60714 – 847-965-2344

Tam O'Shanter is a beautiful 9-hole golf course scenically situated on the North branch of the Chicago River. Home of the first nationally televised golf tournament in 1953, and host to some of the richest events in the world in the 1940's and 1950's, the course has been a landmark location for generations.

Visitors are able to walk the same grounds as legends of the game including Byron Nelson, Ben Hogan, Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, and Babe Zaharias. With the 18 hole course slated for development in the 1970's, Niles Park District was able to purchase the North half of the property and opened the current 9-hole layout in 1973.

Today, Tam O'Shanter is enjoyed by approximately 35,000 golfers annually and welcomes an additional 650 participants in our year round junior and adult instructional programs.
