

Private Skating Lesson Request Form

Now that you have decided to take private lessons. Please complete this form and turn it in to the a skating director aforbes@niles-parks.org. You will be contacted in a prompt manner.

Remember: Private lessons are a great way to learn quickly while having fun, but they also require commitment from the student, coach and parent. Once you have your lesson day and time, please make sure to exchange telephone numbers and e-mail addresses with your instructor and communicate possible delays or cancellation with them directly. All instructors have their own policy's regarding late arrival and missed lessons, so you will want to check with your specific instructor. Most will charge you for no-show lessons, full fee's for lessons even when late, and consultation time. Our instructors are all on tight schedules and no one wants to waste time or money. Please remember your instructor is an independent contractor while teaching a private lesson. They must hold liability insurance as such naming Niles IceLand as additionally insured. All of our instructors have been back ground check not only by our park district but also by our professional organizations for the safety of our customers.

Keep in mind that you can discontinue your lessons or make a change in instructors at any time. It is very important, though, to make your intentions known before missing a lesson and/or before switching or adding a new instructor. Not only is this a courtesy, but it is also helps to lessen any misunderstanding between staff and customers. Our staff will not take on a student until the balance with the previous coach has been paid. Thank you for your cooperation.
